- Ninjas & Superspies™
- Beyond the Supernatural™
- Palladium® RPG (fantasy)
- RECON® (military)
- Rifts® (cosmic sf adventure)

Worlds of Adventure ...

Palladium Books® produces some of the most popular role-playing games ever. From super powered heroes and Ninja Turtles to slayers of the supernatural and masters of super- science and magic.

Player characters can be robots, cyborgs, mutants, aliens, wizards, warriors, cyber-knights, superninja, superspies, psychic investigators (possessing psionic powers), dragons (yes dragons!), elves, wolfen, and dozens of other superhuman heroes!

But that's not all ...

Palladium's role-playing games all use one basic set of rules. This means once you learn one of our games you can play any of them!

Best of all, you can easily bring characters from one game world into any of our other games! In fact, Rifts combines all of our games into one gigantic, multi-dimensional extravaganza.

As if this were not enough, all of Palladium's games are sturdy, 8 1/2 by 11 paperback books; easy to carry, easy to use, and easy to store on a shelf.

Illustrators include Richard Corben, James Steranko, Kevin Eastman, Peter Laird, Steve Bissette, Denis Cowan, Steve Hickman, Mike Gustovich, Kevin Long, and Keith Parkinson.

We suggest role-playing games for readers 12 and older.

Where can you find these Palladium® RPGs?

Most comic book stores and hobby shops carry at least some of our role-playing game books and can order the ones they don't currently have in stock. Or directly from Palladium Books®.

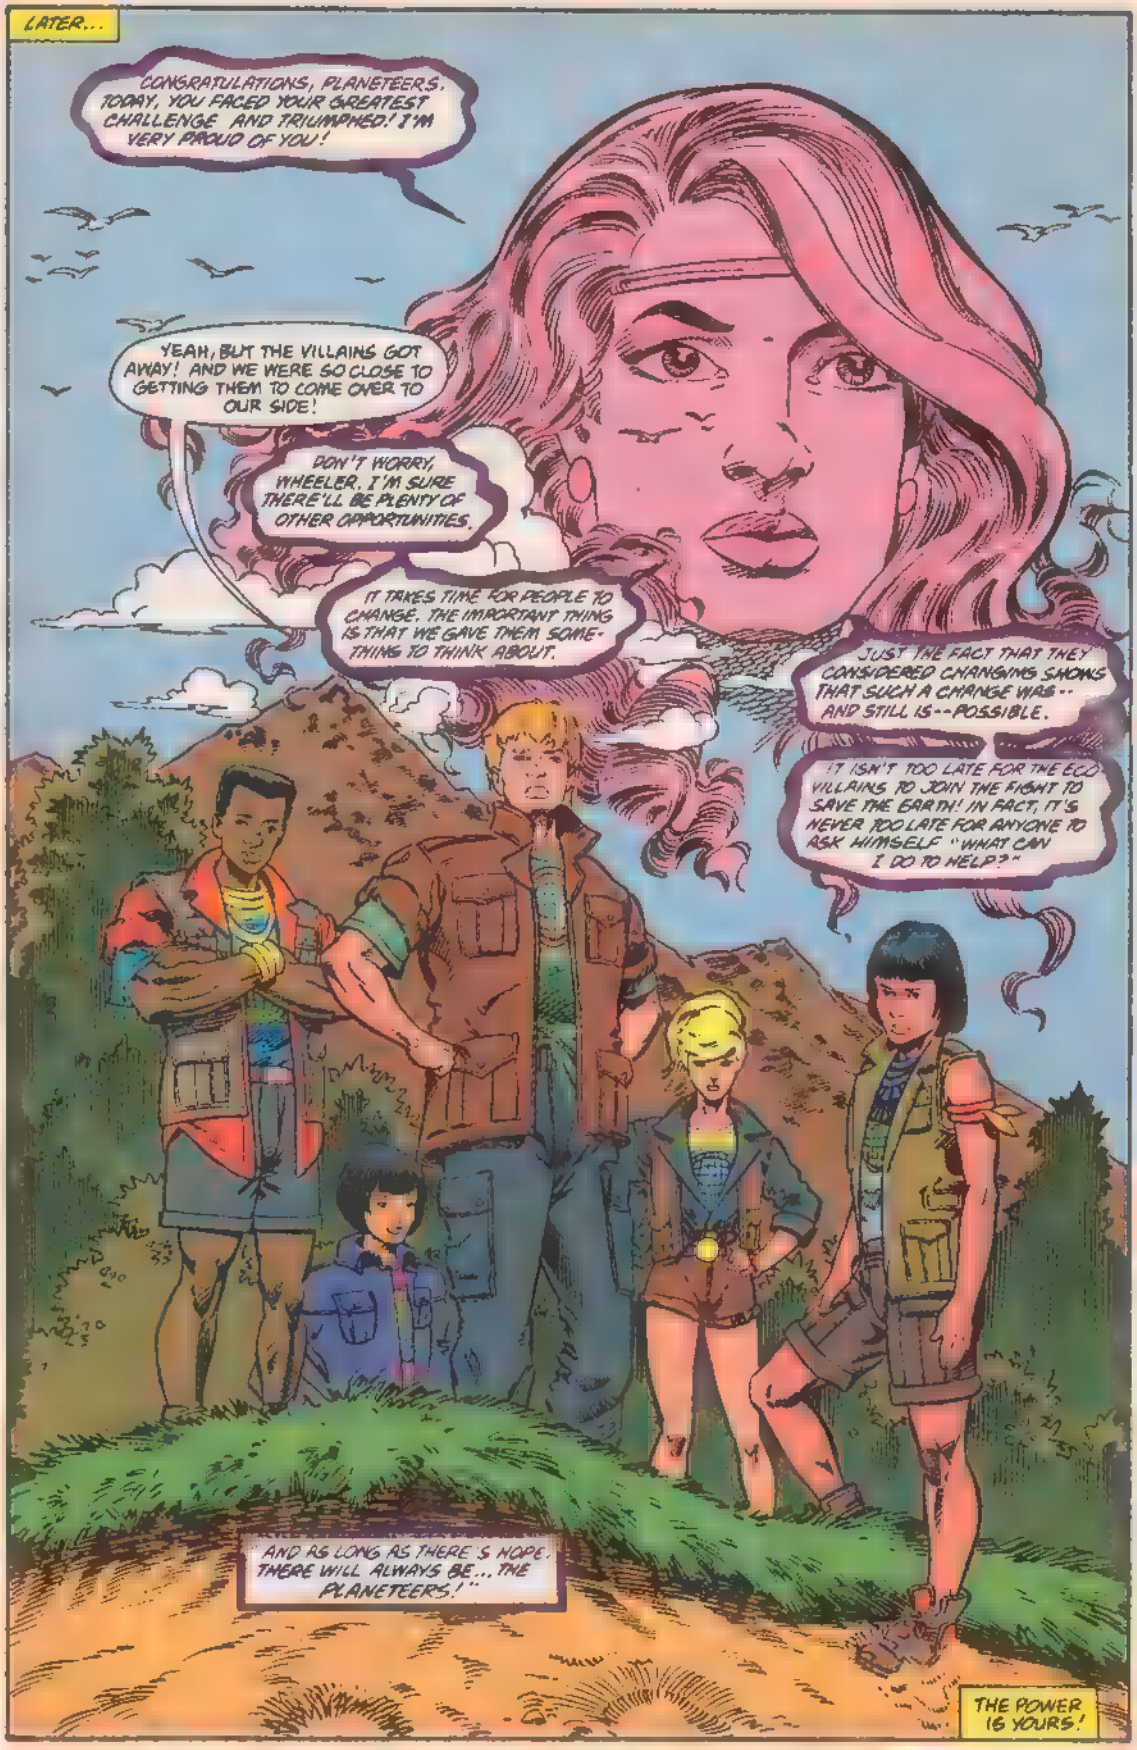
BOMBARDED BY THE PUREST FORMS OF FOUR PHYSICAL ELEMENTS, CAPTAIN POLLUTION IS STAGGERED... BUT NOT FINISHED!
THAT--THAT HURT, PLANET-PUNKS! THE SICKENING PURITY OF YOUR POWERS HAS DRAINED ME!
BUT I'M STILL HERE! YOU ROTTEN KIDS CAN'T DEFEAT CAPTAIN POLLUTION!
YOU'VE HAD IT!
WRONG, VILLAIN! YOU HAVE NOT YET FACED ALL OF THE ELEMENTS!
YOU CAN DO IT, MA-TI! WE'LL ALL BE HERE WITH YOU!
NOW YOU FACE THE GREATEST POWER OF ALL -- THE POWER OF HEART!
N-NO!
MA-TI'S POWER ALLOWS HIM TO COMMUNE WITH ALL LIVING THINGS, TO FEEL WHAT THEY FEEL, AND KNOW WHAT THEY KNOW.
W-WHAT ARE YOU-- UNNH!
MA-TI DRAWS STRENGTH FROM HIS FELLOW PLANETEERS, FORCING THE ALREADY-WEAKENED VILLAIN TO FEEL THE PAINFUL EFFECTS OF POLLUTION ON OUR WORLD... AND THE STRENGTH OF THE PLANETEERS' DEVOTION TO REVERSING IT.
YOU HAVEN'T HEARD THE LAST OF ME!
I'LL BE BACK!
HEART CANCELS OUT HATRED, AND WITHOUT HATRED, POLLUTION CAN'T EXIST!
HEY, OUR RINGS MELTED! BLIGHT, YOU AND YOUR CHEAP IMITATION RINGS!
WE CAN ARGUE ABOUT IT LATER, YOU BIG GOON! FOR NOW, LET'S GET OUT OF HERE!



LATER...
CONGRATULATIONS, PLANETEERS. TODAY, YOU FACED YOUR GREATEST CHALLENGE AND TRIUMPHED! I'M VERY PROUD OF YOU!
YEAH, BUT THE VILLAINS GOT AWAY! AND WE WERE SO CLOSE TO GETTING THEM TO COME OVER TO OUR SIDE!
DON'T WORRY, WHEELER. I'M SURE THERE'LL BE PLENTY OF OTHER OPPORTUNITIES.
IT TAKES TIME FOR PEOPLE TO CHANGE. THE IMPORTANT THING IS THAT WE GAVE THEM SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT.
JUST THE FACT THAT THEY CONSIDERED CHANGING SHOWS THAT SUCH A CHANGE WAS -- AND STILL IS -- POSSIBLE.
IT ISN'T TOO LATE FOR THE ECO VILLAINS TO JOIN THE FIGHT TO SAVE THE EARTH! IN FACT, IT'S NEVER TOO LATE FOR ANYONE TO ASK HIMSELF "WHAT CAN I DO TO HELP?"
AND AS LONG AS THERE'S HOPE, THERE WILL ALWAYS BE... THE PLANETEERS!"
THE POWER IS YOURS!

SO REAL YOU'LL WISH IT WAS JUST A GAME!

BULLPEN BULLETINS

STAN'S SOAPBOX

Hi, Heroes!

By now, I hope you're fully recovered from the culture shock of last issue's announcement, where we learned that Jim (Terminator) Cameron plans to write and direct a proposed mega-movie starring the world's greatest web-swinger!

But you know that maniacal Marvel never content to rest on its laurels; besides, we always have to have some new excitement popping so that I'll have something to write about in ye old Soapbox every month. So here's another pandemonious pronouncement — so electrifying that perhaps you'd better take it sitting down!

Not only is Jim Cameron arguably the greatest action adventure writer /director in the galaxy, but he's also so tuned in to the mighty Marvel mythos that he is about to tackle a second project of ours! Which one? Hey, wouldja believe — THE X-MEN?!!

Even as you read these senses-staggering sentences, Jolly Jim is preparing an entire series of animated X-Men cartoons for TV! But we're not talking the ordinary, run-of-the-mill cartoons you're used to seeing! We're talking Hollywood's greatest actors doing the voices! We're talking animation like you've never seen before! We're talking stories, artwork and special effects that will rival the wonder and spectacle of our mags themselves! We're talking about Jim Cameron personally producing the entire series and giving it the style and scope that only he can bring!

And then, once the cartoon series is under our belt, don't be surprised if we tell you about a live-action X-Men movie, just so Spidey won't be lonely up there on the big screen!

There's more, but I'm out of space, so stay tuned till next ish. Marvel's soaring like an eagle, and we want you flying with us all the way!

Excelsior!

Stan

Stan Lee

When we think of March, we think of the future, since the very name "March" implies that we are moving forward, like time eternal. We decided this month to look into the future, aided by noted astrologist and dental hygienist, Jean Predixon.

Join us now as we present our look at the world of tomorrow, or the day after tomorrow, or perhaps the day after next Wednesday ...

In the future, there will be no money! Instead, people will use comic books as currency! And the rarer a comic is, the more it will be worth. The richest man in the world will be the man who owns a complete set of STREET POET RAY!

In the future, every Marvel title will have the letter "X" in front of it's name!

In the future, every comic will have a double-gatefold, die cut, glow in the dark cover ... and there will be no pages on the inside!

In the future, comics will cost $10.00 each, and today's reader will be nostalgic and say, "I can remember when they were only $1.25!"

In the future, dark, gritty characters will become a thing of the past. They will be replaced by tender, sensitive characters. The hottest Marvel titles will be comics featuring Alan Alda and Phil Donahue!

In the future, editor Ralph Macchio will actually show up for work before three in the afternoon. (All right, so the crystal ball was a little hazy on this one.)

In the future, editor in chief Tom DeFalco will start dressing like Odin, and demand to be called "All-Father Tom"

In the future, managing editor Glenn Herdling will perform at Radio City Music Hall, giving a concert with his ability to make music with his hands.

In the future, managing editor Marie Javins' wall of cow drawings by famous artists will become a wall of goats instead.

In the future, WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP WRESTLING writer Mike Lackey will not get hit over the head with a steel chair by a wrestler, as he dreamed of, but he will instead be smacked by a shopping cart pushed by Hulk Hogan in the supermarket.

In the future, editor Mike Rockwitz will have an entire issue of CONAN tattooed on his body. Only his girlfriend will get to read the whole story.

In the future, SLEEPWALKER writer Bob Budiansky will actually start sleepwalking around the Marvel offices. When awakened, he will claim he was merely doing research.

In the future, Bob Harras will get the rights to all the X-books, and go off and form his own separate comics company, called Harras E. Comics. It would be the third largest comic book company in the country. Terry Kavanagh will be thankful that EXCALIBUR starts with an "E", not an "X"!

In the future, Roy Thomas and Fabian Nicieza will battle it out to see which one of them has the right to write every single Marvel Comic every month. It will end in a draw, with the two splitting the Marvel line equally.

In the future, editor Rob Tokar will edit a comic that will not get canceled after six issues or less.

In the future, managing editor Tom Brevoort, who has read every Marvel and DC comic published for the past five years, will actually skip one issue of one series. When asked why, Tom will respond "Well, I can't read everything, you know!"

In the future, comics will be edible! They'll be printed on bread, and after you finish reading an issue, you'll be able to eat it. This will really put a crimp in back issue sales.

In the future, a major Marvel hero will actually reach the big screen. The character? Willie Lumpkin, the ear-wiggling mailman!

In the future, the Marvel Comics company will grow so large that it will crush all other comics companies under its heel like a fifty-foot reptile. Then it will go on a rampage, destroying everything in its path, until it tries to climb the Empire State Building and is shot down by bi-planes.

In the future, Spider-Man and Mary Jane will have lots of babies, and Spidey will find that his web fluid makes a perfect disposable diaper!

In the future, Marvel will do a multi-part crossover that crosses over retroactively into evry comic we ever published, and every comic we will ever publish! If you miss one issue, the whole story will be ruined!

In the future, Bill and Ted will actually go an entire issue without uttering the word "Dude" in BILL AND TED'S EXCELLENT COMIC BOOK!

Those are the predictions we have right now. It should be interesting to see which if any come true. In closing, we'd just like to remind you not to miss this month's issues of X-NAMOR, and X-EXCALIBUR! See you next X-Month!

Dear Captain Planet and the Planeteers,

I've read every issue of CAPTAIN PLANET AND THE PLANETEERS since issue #1. It's good that you print on recycled paper and have tips at the end of the issue to save the Earth. Now, I have some comments on issues one through five.

#1: I liked the way you introduced the Planeteers, just like in the cartoon show. When will Greedly show up again?

#2: Dr. Blight must show up again, especially with the dragon. Linka and the other Planeteers aren't weaker to pollution because they have the rings, are they?

#3: Ma-Ti's power isn't worthless. If it was, Captain Planet shouldn't even be around.

#4: I hope you'll have the Planeteer Auxiliary in a lot. They're okay.

#5: Looten Plunder almost did the Planeteers in in PollutionLand. I really liked the storyline.

I really like the art in these books. To Delbo, Broderick, and Brasfield, (and to everybody at Marvel Comics), I say keep up the good work. Are Captain Planet and the Planeteers going to join the Marvel Universe?

Until Greedly drinks Slim-Fast, make mine Marvel!

Joel Lyons
7007 West Indian School Rd. #2398
Phoenix, AZ 85033

Thanks for writing, Joel! Good to see you are such a big Captain Planet fan! It seems many of our readers have been with us right from issue #1, so we must be doing something right! Let's take a look at your comments on our first five issues:

1. Greedly, as well as all the major Eco-villains, pops up again in this very issue! How's that for service?

2. Dr. Blight is back this issue as well, however we don't have any plans for Smog the Dragon. We should note that we're pleased Smog was so popular a character with all of you. Also, the Planeteers are no more susceptible to pollution than the average teenager, but their powers are lessened by exposure to any form of pollution.

3. We agree that Ma-Ti's power of heart is not worthless. That was what we tried to get across in issue #3. Ma-Ti was just feeling useless because his power is not as aggressive as that of his fellow Planeteers. As you noted, the Planeteers could not create Captain Planet without the heart of Ma-Ti to bring their individual powers together.

4. Specs, Tubby, and Dave say thanks! We here at Marvel like to think of all Captain Planet fans as members of the Planeteers Auxiliary! There're plenty of things you can do to help save the Earth! Just follow the Planeteer Alert Tips featured in the comics and cartoon shows or just look around and see what needs to be done. Saving the Earth is a job for everybody!

5. The original idea for Pollution-Land came from our former CAPTAIN PLANET co-writer Jim Salicrup, thus inspiring us to introduce the character "Jolly" Jim Slimm as a tribute to the real Jim! Even though Jim no longer does any writing for CAP, he's still with us in spirit--and he's an honorary Planeteer for life!

There are no plans to have Captain Planet join the Marvel Universe--we think he works just fine on his own!

Dear Editor,

I have read the first five issues of Captain Planet's comic books. He looks as handsome in a comic book as he is on television. Your artists have been doing excellent work on drawing this super hero. Not only is Captain Planet a super hero, but he is also a kindhearted character who reminds us people to keep this planet Earth clean.

My favorite Planeteer is Linka. She may be a "wind bag," but she knows how to do her job as a Planeteer. I like to see her do some "windy" things.

Please put Sly Sludge in future comic books.

Robin Elkins
1806 No. J St.
Ft. Smith, ARK 72901

Sly Sludge is featured next issue, Robin! Linka got to do lots of "windy" things against Smog the Dragon in issue #2, but she really got to strut her stuff in issue #5 against Duke Nukem, where she used her power to fly! You can be sure to see Linka doing lots more windy things in the future.

Look for the Linka solo story in issue #10, in which Linka travels back to her homeland, is reunited with her old flame, and encounters the menace of the Litter Bug!

Dear Marvel,

First I would like to say thanks for making CAPTAIN PLANET into a comic. Second, I would like to let you know that I'm 13 in the eighth grade. Most people know that in the eighth grade, you don't read comics, but I do because I like your comics.

I congratulate you on the first five CAPTAIN PLANET comics. I made sure to get each one, since I like Captain Planet so much. The writers of the fourth and fifth issues deserve even greater congratulations. Even Imagining, I would never have thought to have Duke Nukem grow to that size, or have the Planeteers fall for a trap in an amusement park. Also, I would never have thought to have Verminous Skumm put devices in the Planeteers' ears in preparation for some master plan. I shouldn't wonder.

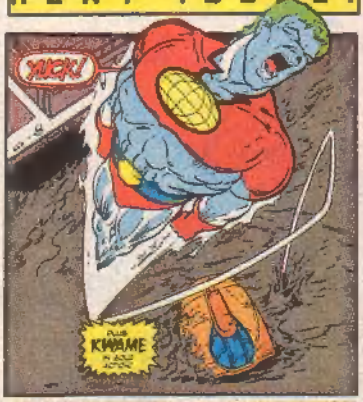
Continue your good writing, and keep on truckin'. Peace!

Adam Wright
5224 Roses of Picardy Dr.
College Park, GA 30349

Thanks for writing, Adam! Nice to hear you found our stories so far beyond your wildest imaginings. But we're sure you could come up with stories just as good if you put your mind to it!

Oh, and you might be surprised to learn that quite a few eighth graders still read comics. In fact, many of our fans keep on reading through high school, college, and even beyond! Comics are even beginning to make the New York Times best-seller lists, and be reviewed seriously by prominent book critics. So hang in there, Adam! As long as you don't read your comics while you're in class, you'll do just fine!

NEXT ISSUE:



Be here next month for action on the ocean vs. the sickeningly slick Sly Sludge! Will his illegal actions get Cap and the Planeteers "down in the dumps?"

Plus part two of Carbon Copy and an all-new story with Kwame in solo action! You'll feel the Earth move!
